Part(I): Tafseer Example

Dhul Hijjah 23, 1438

Name of the Surah: Ad-Duha

Meaning: forenoon

Assigned verses for Tafseer: The whole Surah

Reason(s) of Revelation/ Backdrop : the Surah was revealed when the Quran revelation was temporary ceased. When the wife of Abu Lahab realized this, she went to the Prophet (PBUH), and told him:” I hope your devil left you.” Others made a point that maybe Allah is angry with him and abandoned him. The Prophet (PBUH) was really happy when Surat Ad-Duha was revealed to him.

Who’s Who/Major characters mentioned in the Surah : None

Notable Points:

Allah Has Not Abandoned the Prophet (PBUH)

Allah swears by the forenoon as it’s a blessed time. He also swears by the night as it comes to rest. Allah says :“Your lord has never forsaken you nor hate you .”

Don’t Be Concerned with this World

The hereafter is better than this world. Allah will give you from the good until you are satisfied.

Remember Your Roots

Allah reminds the Prophet that he was an orphan, and Allah give him refuge. He was unaware, and Allah guided him. He was poor, and Allah make him rich.

Three Token of Advice

Allah commands us not to oppress the orphans, or turn away the person who asks for money, and speak of his blessing.

Gems to remember/ life lessons:

- This Surah shows the character of the Prophet (PBUH)
- This Surah shows that Allah loves the Prophet (PBUH), and this shows us the importance of following the Prophet (PBUH).
- Don't oppress the orphan
- Don't turn away the beggars
- Always praise Allah in secret and public.

Personal reflection:

I have learned from this Surah that I should follow the Prophet (PBUH), which I will try my best to follow his sunnah. I won't oppress the orphan, or turn away the beggars, and I will try my best to be good Muslimah in my actions. I will always remember and praise Allah in my heart, and in any gathering in sh Allah.
